

What's in Your Library?

There are some topics that we feel more comfortable talking about than others. We all have a "library" in our mind, and when we talk to someone we can use that library to make conversation and get to know them. All of our libraries are different and will change and grow with every new experience we have.

What topics can you talk about? What is in your library?

Here are some ideas to get you started.

Friends

Family

Pets

School

Vacations

Restaurants

Music

Video Games

Holidays
